1. Descriptive Analysis

During this two-week period, total sales amounted to ₦47.37M, achieving 97.85% of the target (₦48.41M). A total of 15,000 items were sold, with an average daily sales value of ₦9.47K.

-By Branch: The highest sales were recorded in Ikoyi and Gbagada, with about ₦9.8M each.

-By Product: Hot Pepperoni Feast was the best-seller, generating ₦4.2M in revenue.

2. Diagnostic Analysis

By Date: Most days were close to the sales target, though a few days (e.g., Dec 15: 6.92%) showed significant gaps. Some days exceeded the target.

Branch Performance: Surulere and Lekki recorded lower sales compared to other branches.

Pizza Performance: Pepperoni Feast had the lowest sales (~₦3.63M), indicating the need for product-specific promotions.

3. Predictive Analysis

The forecast for one week after December 15 shows a gradual improvement in sales, ranging from ₦3.35M to ₦3.9M per day. The trend is stable, with growth potential if the current momentum continues.

Conclusion:-

Domino’s Pizza Nigeria achieved a satisfactory level of sales during this period, coming very close to the target. Focusing on underperforming products like Pepperoni Feast and further strengthening top-sellers like Hot Pepperoni Feast can enhance performance. The forecast indicates a positive outlook for the future.
